

Anna Wilmetta Harmon

January 1, 1942 - March 28, 2026

Ann W. Harmon, age 84, of Omak, Washington stepped into Heaven and was welcomed home by her loving Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, on March 28th, 2026.

A beloved mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, Ann was known for her sweet spirit, generosity, her love for her Lord, and others. Ann loved thrifting, her natural remedy for all ailments of honey and vinegar, and having two of everything, just in case. Ann showed her love of caring for others, through her nursing career in Brewster, Washington. She enjoyed meeting up with friends while yard-saling and volunteering at the Okanogan Senior Center. She was a cherished member of Faithful Baptist Church of Omak, Washington, for 22 years, faithfully attending, serving and encouraging. Ann accepted the Lord as her Saviour as a young adult, and lived a life of sharing the love and gospel of Christ to so many that she met, her love for the Lord and her Bible was evident through it's worn pages. One of her favorite verses was, John 3:16r

Ann is now singing one of her beloved songs, "Face to face! O blissful moment! Face to face to see and know; Face to face with my Redeemer, Jesus Christ who loves me so.", in the presence of her precious Lord.

Ann was born on January 1st, 1942, in Amity, Pennsylvania to Porter Ellis Herrod and Iva Marie Miller. She was the seventh of nine children.

Ann was preceded in death by her husband, Rollie Harmon, and her son, Victor Earl Yost.

Ann was a loving, Christian mother of four children, Victor, Debbie, Bobbi, and Becky. She is survived by her three siblings, Leona Lemmon, Ruth Wade, and Paul Herrod, three daughters: Debbie Laugen, Becky Yost, and Bobbi Yost, her eight grandchildren and numerous great-grandchildren.

Her Celebration of Life service is scheduled for Saturday, April 18, 2026, 11 A.M., at River Valley Funeral Home in Omak, Washington. Pastor David Merrifield will be officiating.

In lieu of flowers, please share a written memory or a card, Faithful Baptist Church, P.O Box 1740 Omak, WA.
