After her father's retirement, the family returned to Twisp. It was while Anne was home for the summer from college, that she met John R. "Bob" Duncan. They married on August 10, 1951, and celebrated over 66 years of marriage.

Thank you for preparing the beautiful tribute video. I first met first cousin Anne in 1955, when I traveled to Washington as a teenager. We spent three great days visiting her father, Evan, a retired U.S. Forest Ranger. She and Bob had been married for a few years and they had at least a couple of children. Since then I have only seen her at a few family reunions, but we often corresponded at Christmas. I have enjoyed knowing she was in my life. She will be missed. Our prayers to her family. I am sorry we were not able to attend the memorial. There are only two of us first cousins left on the paternal side.
