

Annette Lois Santee

November 7, 1949 - June 7, 2023

Annette Lois Santee left this world on June 7th, 2023. She was born Lois Annette Goebel in Seattle Washington on November 7th, 1949 to Hazel and Blaine Goebel.

Annette loved the woods growing up outside of Lynnwood, Washington. Her heart and beliefs were Native American. She spent the majority of her life living in Port Angeles , Olympia , and with Nisqually & Quinault tribes and friends/family there. She married Raymond Sanchez jr in 1981, who passed before her in 2015.

Nette was an amazing artist. Her art captured the essence/spirit of the subject as seen through her eyes, resulting in a hyper/extra “real” feel to her drawing and paintings. Annette felt replenished by nature, rivers, and beaches.

Over her lifetime she loved her dogs Duke, Mojo & Kayak. As well as her many kitties - Cicero, Smoke, Jessa, kitty-Woo & Sofie.

Annette used to say she liked animals better than humans.

She loved the Blues, Janis Joplin, Motown and The Doors. There was love in her heart for her family, and she was well loved by them. She loved chicken & eggs.

She is survived by her only child Raina LaFontaine, Two grandsons, Izaak JF LaFontaine, Arryk AC LaFontaine, her ex son-in-law, their father Ethan LaFontaine , a grand daughter, Alisa HM Coonan. Her brothers Grant Goebel, Greg Goebel and Gary Goebel, her sister Lynne Anderson, nieces and nephews, Ryan, Krista, Rebecca, Edward, Ivan, and Tristan, her best friend/sister Jeanie Mowitch , & friend of 40 yrs, Sally McCloud , and her friend in her teenage years, Kathy Pederson aka Mary Kathy Gillory.

“ My Mom wanted to go to the beach. I don't know if I can get that way this summer or if it will be next. Things have been hard. No way to travel there right now. Will update when plans can be made.
Thanx, Raina
