

Delbert George Baker

May 23, 1941 - March 16, 2025

Delbert George Baker, 83, known by many as John Baker thanks to his grandmother Elisa, passed away March 16, 2025, at home in Omak Washington. He was born on May 23th 1941 in Omak to Father Eugene Logan “Doc” Baker and Mother Mabel Lillian McCracken Baker, he was the youngest of 5 siblings. Delbert graduated from Omak High school, class of 1960. Delbert moved to Centralia, Washington with his first wife and worked for the Yard Birds department store for a number of years and had three children. The marriage ended in divorce, and he returned to Omak, where he met Fae Marie Spaulding, the love of his life and married on June 10th, 1969 and had two children. Delbert dedicated 34 years of his life to working for the Okanogan County Weed and Sign shop, eventually retiring in 2003. He took great pride in his work and was highly respected. Delbert had a passion for the outdoors and spent many happy days camping, hunting, and fishing with his family. He also had a knack for fixing and building things, always eager to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. In addition to his Parents, he was predeceased by brother Perry Baker, sister Loretta Lawrence, brother Warren Baker and brother Loren Baker. Surviving in addition to his wife of 55 years Fae Marie (Spaulding) Baker are his Sons Steven Springer of Blacke in Lacey, John Baker of Omak, Daughters Leanne Scherbinskey of Steilacoom, Cathie Baker of Graham and Terri Quezada of Omak and many grand children, great grand children, nieces and nephews.