

Diane J Crim

November 23, 1959 - August 16, 2023

Diane Jouette Crim, 63 of Okanogan passed away peacefully at her home on the evening of August 16th 2023 after a hard-fought battle with cancer. She was surrounded by a family who loved her very much.

Diane was born November 23rd 1959 in Omak, WA , and spent her whole life in the Okanogan Valley. Her parents, Barbara Michaels and Narcisse Nicholson Jr., raised her and her four other siblings in east Omak. She married her high school sweetheart, Terry Crim, in April 1978 and they spent the next 45 years building a life together that included starting two businesses and building their own home. She worked hard raising a family while pursuing a higher education and obtained a Master's in Social Work from Heritage College. She cared deeply for the welfare of others and devoted her career to it, working as a Social Worker for Children and Family Services with the Colville Confederated Tribes and later as a Victim's Advocate with The Support Center until retiring in 2022. She loved spending time with her grandchildren, having adventures with her sisters, going to Omak Lake and taking family trips to the Oregon Coast. She was a very talented crafter and loved making jewelry, beading, painting, etc. She enjoyed gardening and home renovation projects. She truly loved her life.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Barbara Michaels and Narcisse Nicholson Jr.; two nephews, Rigo Nicholson and Chase Nicholson. She is survived by her husband, Terry Crim; daughter, Jennifer Knowles and her husband, Isaac; son, Ryan Cim; grandchildren, Madison Crim-Brooks, Mackenzie Crim-Brooks, and Matthew Crim; siblings, Debbie Crim, Wayne Nicholson, Dean Nicholson, and Tammy Nicholson and numerous cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

A celebration of life will be held at 2:00pm, Saturday, September 16th 2023 at her home, 1845 Old Hwy 97, Okanogan, WA. The family would like to express thanks for the wonderful care and compassion given by Enhabit Home Health & Hospice in Omak and the doctors and nurses of the UW Medical Center in Seattle.
