

Donald Bryant Mayo

February 13, 1946 - April 24, 2023

Don passed on to the next life on April 24, 2023. He was at home with family and friends by his side.

Don was born in Wenatchee, WA. He was adopted by Benjamin and Teresa Mayo, Wenatchee, WA. Don attended many schools during his life and graduated from Monroe High School in 1964. He then attended and graduated from Wenatchee Valley College. Don then attended the Police Academy and became an officer of the law in 1977.

Don began his life of service with the Forest Service. He then joined the Chelan County Posse Patrol, Chelan, WA. His career then led him to the City of Oroville where he was the Assistant Police Chief. Don then transferred to Okanogan County Sheriff's Office. He then joined the Kittitas County Sheriff's Office. Don then moved to Snohomish County Sheriff's Office to be closer to family. Don returned to Okanogan County in 1992 to finish his career by retiring in 2000.

He met and married Carol J. Mattern and married in December 1965. Don and Carol have two children, a son, Todd B. Mayo and a daughter, Tiffany J. Price. Don and Carol divorced in 1985.

Don met and shared life with Donna Reams in 2016. They remained together until he passed. They enjoyed many activities together, mostly anything outdoors. Don especially loved fishing and 4-wheeling in his side-by-side. He loved to travel around the U.S. as he has seen many, many places. Don also loved the casino and the entertainment that they provided. He belonged to the TDR Diesel truck group which met every year just outside of Las Vegas.

Don was preceded in death by his parents and brother Jack Mayo. Don is survived by his children, Todd Mayo and Tiffany Price; his partner, Donna Reams; five grandchildren, one great-granddaughter and sister Teri Kay. Don was also so blessed to have an adoptive family, Tim and Anya Tugaw and family, that loved him and shared his life with him.

A memorial service will be held on 2:00 P.M., Sunday, May 7th 2023 at the Omak Elks Lodge, 110 Ash St., Omak, WA
