

Dorothy Catherine Cornwell

June 29, 1936 - November 9, 2023

Dorothy Catherine (Norris) Cornwell peacefully passed away on November 9th, 2023, in Omak, Wash. with her two daughters by her side.

She was born on June 29th, 1936, in Mansfield, Ark., the third of 10 children born to Jeff and Marie Norris. In 1943 the family, weary of the depression, came by train to Washington, settling on an apple ranch called Ribbon Cliff, north of the town of Entiat. Here she grew up and attended school, graduating in 1954.

In November, on the 27th, She married Richard Johnson, moving to Brewster then Tonasket. To this union 6 children were born. They were later divorced.

In July of 1984 she married Marvin Cornwell, living in Pateros and then Omak, and divorced in 1992. Mom loved her many friends, and some of these friendships spanned her entire life.

She especially doted on and loved her kids, grandkids, great grandkids, and great great-grandchild. She was truly the happiest when her home was overflowing with all of them at bar-b-ques, dinners, and just plain old visits.

She was preceded in death by her parents, 4 brothers, 2 sisters, an infant daughter, a granddaughter, and a great grandson.

She is survived by sisters Imogene of Houston and Joyce (Chuck) of Entiat, brother Ed (Jolene) of East Wenatchee, children Doug (Stacey), Don (Debbie), Deanne (Ken), Darren (Amie), all of Tonasket, and Danna (Larry) of Omak, 8 grandchildren, 15 great grandchildren and 1 great great-grand also survived by numerous Nieces, Nephews and Cousins.

Services will be November 25th, 2023 at 1:00 at River Valley Funeral and Cremation, 2547 Elmway Okanogan, WA. Interment will be at Okanogan Valley Memorial Gardens, 18 Root Lane off of Conconully highway.
