

Gayle Louise Crago

April 6, 1955 - January 18, 2026

Gayle Louise Crago, age 70, passed away on January 18, 2026 in Spokane, Wash. Gayle was born on April 6, 1955 in Wilbur, Wash., to Roy and Charlotte Bauman.

When she was four years old her family moved to Omak, Wash., where she grew up and attended school. She graduated from Tonasket High School in 1973. On June 13 1972, Gayle married Steve Fry. Together they had two children, Travis and Amanda. After a few years, the family settled in Juneau, AK. Gayle and Steve later divorced in August of 1982.

Gayle and Jacque were married on February 18, 1983. Though this marriage the family grew as Jacque brought three daughters from a previous marriage: Tammy, Raelynn, and Cynthia.

Gayle was preceded in death by her parents as well as a brother and sister. She is survived by her husband Jacque Crago, her children and step children, two brothers and two sisters and numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren, including the newest due on her birthday.

In 2000, Gayle and Jacque returned to Omak, Wash., to enjoy their retirement years. Gayle dearly enjoyed her time at the Omak Senior Center where she volunteered and found joy in being part of the community.

She was always ready to lend a hand to anyone who needed it. Her kindness, generosity and warm spirit will be deeply missed. A Celebration of Life will be held at the Omak Senior Center on Saturday January 31 st at 1 p.m. Friends and family are invited to bring their stories and memories as we come together to celebrate the life of Gayle.

Rest in Peace. You will be missed.
