Dear Dave:

You are the nicest man I know. I am so glad I am your wife. You are always quick to help other people. You are never rude and uncaring towards others even though sometimes they might deserve it. Your sense of humor is fabulous! You graciously make room in your life for all the animals. You are nice to my relatives. You are very nice to me; and patient too. I love you. Don't tell anyone, but if I ever had to choose between and all of my horses, I'd choose you. Every time. By the way, the horses like you also.

Love,

Zoe
